CIS BRIEFING SESSION

Thursday, 15 June 2006, 10.30 am, IML Lab, CB01.27.13

UTSWeb Policy

'5.2.1 Category 1 – core UTS information' in the Publishing on the UTSWeb Policy states:

'An authoritative source of information regarding UTS legislation, By-law, Rules, policies, course fees, and courses and subjects will be stored within the UTSWeb. This core information can only be displayed on other sites or pages within the UTSWeb via the inclusion of a link to or feed from the authoritative source.'

In accordance with this policy, the following publications draw their course and subject data from the Course Information System (CIS).

Online publications already using CIS data

- UTS Handbook
- UTS: Calendar, Chapter 6 – Courses available
- Online 'Search for courses' database
- Faculty of Business, Graduate School of Business website
- Faculty of Business, UG courses (direct course links to the handbook, which is drawn from CIS)
- Faculty of Design, Architecture and Building website
- Faculty of Education website
- Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences website
- Faculty of Information Technology website
- Faculty of Law website
- Faculty of Nursing, Midwifery and Health website
- Faculty of Science website (direct course links to the handbook, which is drawn from CIS)
- International Office website
- Studylink website

Print publications already using CIS data

- UTS Handbook
- UTS: Calendar, Chapter 6 – Courses available
- Faculty of Engineering, Postgraduate Coursework and Research Degrees Prospectus 2006
- UAC Guide
- ACIR – Good Universities Guide
- Studylink UG and PG listings in the Sydney Morning Herald

Publications in development to use CIS data

- Faculty marketing brochures
- International Undergraduate Prospectus
- International Postgraduate Prospectus